

LEFT 4 DEAD 2

Clozing In (Concept)

By Cormac Bowes

30 seconds of fun

- An infection has claimed the humanity of most every creature in the world bearing only a vague resemblance to what once was. If even that. Hope is dwindling but your just a handful of zombies away from salvation, right?
- Armed with whatever you can scrounge, you persevere with powerful and unorthodox weapons to survive.
- Not all distortions are hostile. One merchant who was able to retain intelligence (but not sanity) will offer you weapons ammo and mods for the mysterious essence produced by the creatures.

Background

---

Angelos ravaged by an animalistic public induced by a fungi growing in living beings spread through wind.

- The Player is fortunate enough to not have been infected before news spread and was therefore able to plan accordingly dawning protective gear. While not granting permanent immunity it should last just long enough for the Player to survive.
